

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 210

By Floyd

A RESOLUTION to urge the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to reconsider its actions and withdraw its authorization and financial support of "Sex Week."

WHEREAS, the members of this body were very distressed to discover that the University of Tennessee at Knoxville has authorized the expenditure of $20,000, including students fees and university monies, for the purpose of holding its first-ever "Sex Week" on the campus in April; and

WHEREAS, this decision has shocked countless University of Tennessee alumni and Tennessee taxpayers who are extremely upset by this action; and

WHEREAS, every decision about the expenditure of public monies by the administration of our flagship university should be based on sound fiscal policy and accountability in the pursuit of academic excellence; and

WHEREAS, it is the sense of this body that this recent decision falls far short of attaining that level of expectation; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby officially urge the University of Tennessee at Knoxville to reconsider its actions and withdraw its authorization and financial support of "Sex Week."

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that appropriate copies of this resolution be prepared and transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House and forwarded to the Chancellor of the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, the President of the University of Tennessee, and every member of the University of Tennessee Board of Trustees.
